

THE DAILY APPEAL.
TUESDAY . . . . . SEPTEMBER 25, 1855

Alarm.—The alarm of fire last night was caused by a conflagration beyond the southern boundary of the city.

POLICE CHARGE.—W. CAXTON, one of our most popular and efficient officers yesterday reported his situation in the forces.

GANGING.—Five negroes were yesterday sentenced by the Recorder to receive thirty-nine lashes each, for playing at cards on Sunday.

FATIGUE.—Will fast boys learn that fat driving in the city is a misdemeanor? John Hollin was, yesterday, fined six dollars, by the Recorder, for being guilty of this offence.

HOUSES.—We regret to learn that this kind hearted gentleman and excellent officer was yesterday so sick to death to attend to his office duties.

FUEL.—Yesterday the jail and calabashes were full. Father MALLON had no less than eight sides to provide breakfast for. This is the largest amount of inmates he has ever had at one time.

Fire on PINE STREETS.—The fire in the middle of yesterday was at STREET's match shop on the corner of Second and Pine streets. The flames were extinguished with buckets of water; no serious damage done.

RECORDING COURT.—The Recorder had twenty-seven cases before him yesterday. We are sorry to have to state that Regis East's health is so precarious that he had to give up his office.

REVENGE.—Johns Abbott and C. Evans were charged before the Recorder yesterday with having had a difficulty. An absent wife and a husband were concerned in the affair, and a divorce is likely to grow out of it.

THE SECOND TIME.—PATRICK KELLY was yesterday up before Eng. East for being intoxicated. He was up a few days ago for the same offense and was fined six dollars; that did him no good so yesterday he had to pay eleven dollars.

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.—ARRIVAL OF THE CITY OF WASHINGTON.

ADVICE.—The steamer City of Washington has arrived here bringing Liverpool advice of the 18th.

TENNESSEE BONDS.—These bonds have declined slightly, on Thursday last 10,000 sold at 90 cents.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Council met last night to consider the proposition originated with the Mayor to save the city thirty thousand dollars of interest per annum, by closing up the city's port.

LODGING.—The subject was debated with considerable animation. The feeling of Council appeared to be in favor of the proposed transaction, and a committee was eventually appointed, consisting of Messrs. KORTCHAK, STREET and ROBINSON to confer with Mr. Tate upon the matter.

LODGING.—Mr. TATE has been absent from the city, and was not present in the improvement of a further meeting of the House.

BANKRUPTCY AND SUICIDE.—Coroner HORN, an Englishman, son of a wealthy banker, who committed suicide in L. SHERMAN's carpenter shop, on Washington street, at eleven o'clock in the morning, by shooting himself through the heart. It is believed that the unfortunate man had been good in circumstances. A large amount of money he had invested was lost during the troubles of the panic. He removed to Paducah, Ky., where his wife accompanied him, last summer. He came down here, a short time ago, in quest of employment, but not succeeding, he fell ill and took to bed, and took a quiet refuge in hotels, and hid-for a time, his poor, broken heart.

ADMIRAL STREET FIRE.—On Sunday morning a wooden building six stories in height on the river below Main street, was destroyed. It had a fire, a whisky bottle, and some provisions, and they lived, eat, and slept like brigands in a cave. The Admiral caused the premises to be vacated at short notice.

SHOT AT A BOY.—On Friday evening a boy was shot in the head, near the Adm. Street, while playing in the yard of the Representatives' hotel at the Mississippi Hotel. Marshall was present. We are sorry to say that the boy is still living, but we are anxious to know if he will recover.

WEATHER.—Cloudy and gloomy, with high winds and grey skies.

SAFETY.—A man who was absent from the city, and was not present in the improvement of a further meeting of the House.

SHOOTING.—A man who appeared to be in a ruder manner, near the Catholic Church. The lady's husband had provided himself with the necessary implements, and gave the fellow a severe whipping, which he took quietly, knowing it would be well deserved.
